
Local Nonprofit, Laws Savings Paws, Seeking Community Support to Launch Pivotal Podcast

Columbia, Tennessee March 31, 2025 – Laws Saving Paws is a 501(c)3 organization whose mission is to advocate for stronger laws, reducing issues related to animal overpopulation, abandonment, neglect, and exploitation—all while fostering a culture of compassion and responsibility. Recognizing that short-term solutions for long-term problems are not the answer, LSP seeks to confront the hardest hitting animal-related issues while providing the public with front row access to the problems at hand.

The Bark: A Pet Podcast Unleashed, will aim to shine a light on the reality of the pet world that often flies under the radar. The podcast will launch once the fundraising goal of $3,975 for preliminary production costs is met. The show will aim to educate the public about animal issues across Tennessee – while providing a level of entertainment sure to sustain the show's listenership. Relevant and timely content will help the community understand the ripple effects of common events, many of which the public is unaware of. The podcast will spark conversations with industry experts and our community, and unapologetically discuss topics related to pet rescue, breeding practices, rising costs, health issues, and what it means to be a responsible pet owner – illustrating how these issues impact everyone, from rural farmers to taxpayers to avid animal lovers..

To learn more about The Bark or if you're a business or individual who'd like to contribute, visit lawssavingpaws.org.

About Laws Saving Paws: Founded in 2024 and based in Columbia, Tennessee, Laws Saving Paws is dedicated to safeguarding the rights and welfare of animals through innovative legal reform and advocacy. They'll strive to empower communities, educate the public, and work collaboratively with policymakers to ensure that every voice is heard and upheld in the legal system.

Media Contact:

Meaghan Thiede, President & Founder

meaghan@lawssavingpaws.org

(203)-824-265

www.lawssavingpaws.org
